

REGISTER NOW FOR THE 36TH ANNUAL METRO CONVENTION

JOIN US for our 8:30 am sharp Business Meeting, or at 9:30 am for registration and the program below. The Convention will be held at the Joseph S. Murphy Institute
25 W. 43 Street 18th floor.

MORNING PANEL: 10:00 am

"Framing the Public Sector"

The attacks on public employees and the public good, and the implications for organized labor. Ed Ott, Distinguished Lecturer in Labor Studies, Murphy Institute will moderate. Panelists to include:

- Barbara Bowen, President, PSC CUNY
- Chris Policano, Public Affairs Director, AFSCME
- Janine Jackson, Program Director, FAIR
- Bill Hohlfeld, Editor, The Lather, Ironworkers Local 46
- Amy Goodman, Democracy Now!

FRIDAY, JUNE 17, 2011

DISTINGUISHED LABOR COMMUNICATOR AWARD for 2011: 12:30 pm

Frances Fox Piven, lifetime advocate for social justice, will be honored for her achievements and her valor. Introduction by Richard Kim of TheNation.com.

There will be no afternoon workshop at this year's convention. Metro members are urged to avail themselves of the Metro discount at Organizing 2.0's day-long workshop on mobile technology on June 3. For further information visit <http://www.organizing20.org/2011/05/07/mobile-phone-organizing/>

★ LUNCH AT NOON ★ METRO'S ANNUAL COMMUNICATION AWARDS: 1:30 PM ★
★ GOT A PUBLICATION? BRING A STACK OF 50 FOR YOUR FELLOW METRO MEMBERS ★

TO REGISTER, GO TO

<http://metrolabornyc.org>, click on the Annual Convention tab and sign up online.

(Bring the check to the Convention. We don't need it in advance but we do need a firm commitment.)

NOTE: There will be $5 added to the fee for registration at the door.

Registration: $25 for members /
$35 for non-members.

SPECIAL RATE for Students/Interns: $10.

HOW TO REGISTER:

Go to <http://metrolabornyc.org>, click the tab for annual convention and fill out the form.

Bring your check to the convention.

No internet access?

No problem.

Fax name and affiliation to 646.349.9602